SUBMISSION

A Cara,

I understand that there is a strong possibility that the Electoral Boundaries may be looked at before the next County Council Elections in May 2009. If that is the case, then as a concerned citizen, I would respectfully suggest that the Boundary commission would look at the Tubbercurry/Ballymote areas in Sligo, because here in my Parish of Gurteen (Sligo) which has two half parishes, namely Cloonloo and Killaraght, we were split up in the last Boundary Commission revision. Gurteen village (which has approx 800 votes) was put into the Tubbercurry area, while the two half parishes (with approx 400 votes) were put into the Ballymote area.

I respectfully request that you sincerely consider the points I have made, and in so doing make an honest effort to re-install Gurteen, Cloonloo, and Killaraght as one unit- in either Ballymote or Tubbercurry.

Thanking you in anticipation,
Yours Faithfully,
Sean Tansey
